2.1 - Fees and Refunds

International Institute of Education and Training is entitled to charge fees for services provided to students undertaking training and assessment that leads to a nationally recognised outcome. These charges are generally for items such as course materials, textbooks, student services and training and assessment services.

Fees payable

Fees are payable when a student has received a confirmation of enrolment. The initial fee payment must be made prior to commencing training or within 5 days of receiving an invoice from International Institute of Education and Training. International Institute of Education and Training may discontinue training if fees are not paid in accordance with the agreed fee schedule. The current fees and charges for International Institute of Education and Training are published within the current schedule of fees and charges.

Schedule of Fees and Charges

The Chief Executive officer is responsible for approving International Institute of Education and Training Schedule of Fees and Charges. The schedule of fees and charges is to include the following information:

- the total amount of all fees including course fees, administration fees, material fees and any other charges for enrolling in a training program;

- payment terms, including the timing and amount of fees to be paid and any non-refundable deposit/administration fee;

- the nature of the guarantee given by International Institute of Education and Training to honour its commitment to deliver services and complete the training and/or assessment once the student has commenced study;

- any discounts, fee reductions or exemptions available for multiple enrolments, concession card holders, continuing students, group bookings etc;
- the fees and charges for additional services, including such items as issuance of a replacement qualification parchment or statement of results and the options available to students who are deemed not yet competent on completion of training and assessment; and

- International Institute of Education and Training refund policy.

- Replacement of text and training workbooks

Students who require replacement of issued text or training workbooks will be liable for additional charges to cover the cost of replacement. Where a student has purchased a text or training workbooks and subsequently cancels his or her enrolment, International Institute of Education and Training will not refund monies for the text unless a written request for a refund is received and we are satisfied that the text is in as-new condition. For a full list of replacement charges please refer to International Institute of Education and Training schedule of fees and charges.

Giving notice of enrolment cancelation

A student who wishes to cancel their enrolment must give notice in writing. This may be via email or letter. International Institute of Education and Training staff who are approached with initial notice of cancelation are to ensure the student understands their rights with regards to the refunding of tuition fees. The student is also to be advised of other options such as suspending the enrolment and re-commencing in another scheduled training program.

Students who give written notice to cancel their enrolment and who are eligible for a refund are to be provided with a Refund Request Form. Students’ who may not be eligible but are requesting a refund should also be provided with the Refund Request Form so the request can be properly considered by the Chief Executive Officer.
Refunds policy

The following refund policy will apply:

- Students, who give notice to cancel their enrolment 10 business days or more prior to the commencement of a program, will be entitled to a full refund of fees paid.

- Students who give notice to cancel their enrolment 9 business days or less prior to the commencement of a program will be entitled to a 75% refund of fees paid. The amount retained (25%) by International Institute of Education and Training is required to cover the costs of staff and resources which will have already been committed based on the students initial intention to undertake the training.

- Students who cancel their enrolment after a training program has commenced will not be entitled to a refund of fees of any fees paid in advance. An exception to this policy is where International Institute of Education and Training fails to fulfil its service agreement and fees are refunded under our guarantee to clients.

Discretion may be exercised by the Chief Executive Officer in all situations, if the student can demonstrate that extenuating or significant personal circumstance led to their withdrawal. In these cases, the student should be offered a full credit toward the tuition fee in another scheduled program in-lieu of a refund. Chief Executive Officer may also authorise a refund of tuition fees if the circumstances require it.

Where refunds are approved, the refund payment must be paid to the student within 14 days from the time the student gave written notice to cancel their enrolment. Tuition refunds are to be paid via electronic funds transfer using the authorised bank account nominated by the student on the Refund Request Form.

Statutory cooling off period
The Standards for Registered Training Organisations require a person to be informed of their right to a statutory cooling off period. A statutory cooling off period is defined with in the Australian Consumer Law which was introduced in 2011. A statutory cooling off period (which is 10 days) is a period of time provided to a consumer to allow them to withdraw from a consumer agreement, where that agreement was established through unsolicited marketing or sales tactics. These include tactic such as door-to-door sales and telemarketing. A statutory cooling off period allows a consumer to withdraw from a sales agreement within 10 days of having received a sale contract without penalty. All staff are recommended to refer to the Australian Consumer Law, Sales Practices Guide for further details about a statutory cooling off period and our general obligations for consumer protection during the enrolment process.

International Institute of Education and Training do inform prospective students within the student handbook. It must be noted by all staff that International Institute of Education and Training do not engage in unsolicited marketing or sales tactics and therefore a statutory cooling off period in not likely to be applicable to our students who have enrolled into a program. For refund option in other circumstances, students and staff must refer to the refund policy.

Our Guarantee to Clients

If for any reason International Institute of Education and Training is unable to fulfil its service agreement with a student, International Institute of Education and Training must issue a full refund for any services not provided. The basis for determining “services not provided” is to be based on the units of competency completed by the student and which can be issued in a statement of attainment at the time the service is terminated.

Limiting fees being paid in advance

International Institute of Education and Training acknowledges that it has a responsibility under the Standards for Registered Training Organisations to limit the fees paid by students in advance of their training and assessment services being delivered. To meet our responsibilities International Institute of Education and Training may accept payment of no more than $1,500 from each student prior to the commencement of the course. This requirement only applies when the payment for the fees are being made directly by an individual that falls under the protection of Australian Consumer Law. By this we generally mean the student or the student’s family member. This requirement is not applicable where the fees are being paid by the student’s employer or a funding authority. This is an entity to entity transaction and does not require the limiting of fees paid in advance.

Following the course commencement, International Institute of Education and Training may require payments of additional fees in scheduled payments in advance from the student but only such that at any given time, the amount required to be paid in advance is consistent with the portion of training being delivered.

Payment of GST

GST is exempt under section 38-85 GSTR 2003/1 Goods and Services Tax, tax ruling. The ruling explains the supply of a course for ‘professional or trade course’ is a GST-free education course.

ATO reference:

Where a student is enrolled in a course which is offering units of competency or a whole qualification, the course fees attached to this enrolment will be exempt from the payment of GST. GST does apply on the payment of some miscellaneous charges where these charges are in addition to and outside the normal services offered in a course. Please refer to International Institute of Education and Training schedule of fees and charges for details of what GST is and is not applied to.

Miscellaneous Charges

International Institute of Education and Training will levy some miscellaneous charges for services. These may include:
- Re-issuing a certificate after it has been initially issued to a student.

- Replacing issued learning materials which the student has lost or damaged

- Re-assessment services

- Photocopy fee

These miscellaneous charges are to be clearly specified in International Institute of Education and Training Schedule of Fees and Charges. It is to be made clear if these services will include GST. All miscellaneous charges are to be based on a cost recovery basis and are not intended to be a source of profit.

Student complaints about fees or refunds

Students who are unhappy with International Institute of Education and Training arrangements for the collection and refunding of tuition fees are entitled to lodge a complaint. This should occur in accordance with International Institute of Education and Training complaints policy and procedure.
